The Club

Shorthorn steers are popular with feeders, exhibitors and judges. Pictured above is the reserve grand champion over-all-breeds 1965 International livestock show for Lyle Miller, Osceola, Iowa.

SPECIAL AWARDS . . .
The West Central Illinois Shorthorn Association will give a trophy for the top placing steer, Bureau County Fair, of those steers purchased in this club calf sale and exhibited there. Also, they will give a trophy to the boy or girl who exhibits the highest placing female at the Junior Show, Illinois State Fair, either purchased as a heifer in this sale, or purchased in dam in this sale.

The steers from this sale have gone on to win many honors. Please note the special awards offered to exhibitors of steers purchased in this sale.

Unfortunately, in order to avoid conflicts with judging days at fairs in the area, other sales, etc., this sale is held on Thursday, in spite of the fact that more boys and girls could probably be in attendance on a Saturday. This means those who do make the effort to come will find more bargains in quality than is normal.

The club calf sale is scheduled last . . . it will start at approximately 3 p.m. In this way, juniors will be able to attend and miss only a minimum amount of time in school.

Calf Sale . . . starts at 3 p.m.

Abundant grass, clear water, ample shade and good Shorthorn cows with husky calves. A sight to warm the heart of any cowman. Scene at Melbourne Farm, Big Rock Ill.

This is certainly an occasion for the West Central Illinois Short-horn Ass'n and its members to be proud. Any event that extends over a period of time like this 20th annual sale, must have certain qualities that set it apart from the ordinary.

The first quality that a sale of this nature must have is the right kind of cattle. Princeton has become known for the kind that are good, do good and stay good. Repeat customers year after year attest to the popularity of the cattle sold.

Just as important as quality, is the kind of people that sell the cattle. No association has a more conscientious and dedicated group of breeders behind it. Their reputation for straight talk and straight dealing is unsurpassed.

There are other qualities, but the last mentioned here will be location. Princeton, located in north central Illinois, is ideal for buyers from a wide area. In the past 20 years Princeton has become traditionally the place to be on the second Thursday in September.

That's how we like to think of Princeton . . . as a tradition . . . for good cattle . . . for good breeders . . . for good buyers.

A part of the cow herd at Inness Farms, Galesburg, Ill. They have consigned to most of the 20 sales held at Princeton including the champion bull and reserve champion female last year. They return with one bull and two females this year.

SHORE ACRES BANISTER—A bull of good structure and plenty of size.

One of the most carefully selected cow herds on this continent is that of Tempel Farms, Wadsworth, Ill. Above we see part of this good herd going out to pasture.

Shorthorn females are noted for their ability to convert grass to milk and meat. They have the substance and capacity to wean calves that will grow fast, gain well and weigh more at weaning. Combined with these qualities is a disposition that is the envy of other breeds. No beef animal is better suited for mid-western farms than the gentle, profitable Shorthorn female. On the open ranges her ability to raise and wean a heavier calf along with natural pigmentation and hardiness, make her a tough combination to beat.
